OUR STORY

Tumi Peruvian Restaurants was born from the dream of two Peruvian brothers, Jorge and Víctor Pajares, who came to the United States in search of a better future. After opening and operating several restaurants, Víctor — a passionate and talented chef — always encouraged us to create a place that truly represented our Peruvian roots and cuisine.

While we were developing the concept, Víctor unexpectedly passed away. Though his loss was devastating, it gave my family and my self the strength to continue and bring our shared dream to life in his honor.

Today, Tumi Peruvian Restaurants stands as a tribute to his memory, his talent, and the passion for Peruvian cuisine that we will proudly share with our guests every day.
